ATLANTIC (2016)

Wed 21st March 8pm

Narrated by actor Brendan Gleeson, Atlantic follows the struggles of three fishing communities in Ireland, Norway and Newfoundland, as they battle with the oil explorers and international fishing companies for control of the resources in their waters.

Executive producer, Arthur O'Donnell, will open this screening and take questions about the issues raised and the process of making the film.

CITY OF GHOSTS (2017)

Wed 4th April 8pm

City of Ghosts follows the journey of a handful of anonymous activists who banded together after their home city, Raqqa, was taken over by ISIS in 2014. With astonishing, deeply personal access, this is the story of a brave group of citizen journalists as they face the realities of life undercover, on the run, and in exile, risking their lives to stand up against one of the greatest evils in the world today.
